

During the last 2 years, System Plus Consulting has undergone many changes. This short newsletter is here to share the main events with you:

PARTNERSHIPS - EXHIBITIONS

Following our strategic partnership with Yole Développement, we have set up a distribution agreement with Global Information in Japan, in order to support our growing number of customers in Asia and America.

During the first half of 2012, we will be pleased to meet you at the following events:

- Image Sensors: from March 20 to 22, 2011, in London, UK
- PCIM Europe: from May 8 to 10, in Nuremberg, Germany
- Intersolar Europe: from June 11 to 15, in Munich, Germany
- Sensors Expo & Conf.: from June 6 to 7, Rosemont, IL, USA

SYSTEM PLUS CONSULTING laboratory

An in-house laboratory is on its way in order to increase our knowledge of technology and to be able to answer customer specific demands.

- Our new Lab Manager, Yvon Le Goff, is taking care of the setup of our laboratory, in addition to an access to the facilities from the University of Nantes.
- This new organization is improving our flexibility and the quality of the Reverse engineering services.

Yvon Le Goff, Lab Manager

NEW COSTING TOOLS

A new family of tools has been launched, parametric tools used by purchasing and marketing departments.

- IC Price+ for Integrated Circuits
- Power Price+ for Semiconductors and Power Modules

In 2012, we will release completely new versions of our process-based tools: MEMS Cosim+, LED Cosim+, Power Cosim+.
Contact our new R&D Manager, Olivier Bru for information on availability.

STANDARD REPORTS

New reports are published every month on innovative devices, getting interest from the major semiconductor manufacturers.

In 2012, more than 20 reverse costing reports will be released:

• on MEMS & Sensors (Inertial, RF...)

- ON MEMS & SENSORS (MEMS, RF, ...)
- on Power Electronics devices and systems
- on LED & Optoelectronics
- on Advanced Packaging (wafer-level, TSV, ...)

A list of the reports published since 2009 is available here.

Thank you for your support which has made all this possible and we will continue to improve our services.

We wish you a very happy and successful new year 2012.
